Fado

- Fado is a music genre which can be traced to the 1820s in Portugal, but probably with much earlier origins.
- In popular belief, fado is a form of music characterized by lyrics, often about the sea or the life of the poor. However, although the origins are difficult to trace, today fado is regarded, by many, as simply a form of song which can be about anything, but must follow a certain structure.
- The music is usually linked to the Portuguese word saudade which symbolizes the feeling of loss.

Mariza

“Ó Gente da Minha Terra”

Lyrics:

This fado is mine and yours
a destiny that binds us

however it might be denied to the strings of a guitar

Every time one hears the cries of a singing guitar

one becomes immediately lost with a desire to cry

Oh people from my land
it is now that I understand this sorrow I carry

I received it from you

And it would seem like fondness if I allowed myself to be lulled the bitterness would be greater my singing would be less sad
